Response to Office Action Dated 03/23/2006

REMARKS

A review of the claims indicates that: A) Claims 2, 5—9, 11—14, 16—17, and 20 remain in their original form; B) Claims 1, 3, 4, 10, 15, 18 and 21—26 are currently amended; and C) Claim 19 is currently cancelled.

In view of the following remarks, Applicant respectfully requests reconsideration of the rejected claims.

Claim Amendments and Cancellation

A number of claims have been amended, and one claim has been cancelled. These amendments are not a reflection of the Applicant's opinion as to the allowability of any of the claims. Rather, the amendments were made to expedite the prosecution of this patent application, and to gain allowance of subject matter wherein there is agreement on the allowability.

Support for the Claim Amendments

In a telephone interview recorded by a document mailed 07 June 2006, the Examiner asked the Applicant to disclose support for the claim amendments.

Peripheral devices (e.g. printers and scanners) are discussed with respect to Figs. 1 and 2, such as 102 in Fig. 2. Discussion of an applet, or small application program such as for controlling upgrades, is seen throughout the specification, such as at 314 and 318 in Fig. 3. Discussion of searching with an embedded browser is seen in numerous locations, such as browser 106 in Fig. 1. Discussion of operating the applet to control the browser is seen, for example, near the top of page 12. Discussion of an email notification sent by an applet running on a peripheral device is seen, for example, at the middle of page 12. Discussion of the devices configured to receive the email notification is seen, for example, in the

7 If the Examiner is uncertain of the support of any specific claim element,
8 the Applicant's attorney would be glad to discuss the matter by telephone.

9 Conclusion

10 The Applicant submits that all of the claims are in condition for allowance
11 and respectfully requests that a Notice of Allowability be issued. If the Office's 12 next anticipated action is not the issuance of a Notice of Allowability, the 13 Applicant respectfully requests that the undersigned attorney be contacted for the 14 purpose of scheduling an interview.
